

Grade VII

Lesson 6. Expert Detectives

PROSE

SOUL OF THE CHAPTER

Mysterious Mr Nath

Nishad and his 10 year old sister Maya has always been inquisitive about their neighbour Mr Nath. One day their marbles went inside his house and Nishad got a chance to catch a glimpse of Mr Nath. To Nishad he appeared to be a crook running away from the cops. He had a bad scar on his face and didn't have any friends. But Mr Nath is a patient to their mother who is a doctor by profession. Their mother has told them that he is a polite man. Nishad is also called Seven because his name meant the seventh note on the musical scale.

Soft Hearted Nishad

The two children were busy discussing their mysterious neighbour. They argued about his financial wealth, how he manages his food and so on. Nishad thinks that he is poor and doesn't have much money while Maya believes that he has got a lot of it and has kept it hidden somewhere in his room. Then, it was Mr Nath's scar that bothered the children. They thought that he might have got during a shoot-out with the police. On their mother's birthday, Nishad went along her to the clinic. He happened to see Mr Nath there.

He was worried seeing Mr Nath's gaunt appearance. The evening Nishad went to his place and gave a bar of chocolate to Mr Nath. Nishad befriended Ramesh, the boy who used to bring food for Mr Nath from a nearby restaurant. Ramesh informed his that Mr Nath had two meals a day and tea in morning and evening. His meal was the same every day and always used to pay in cash and tips as well.

He brings two lunches in Sunday and it is the same visitor he find there. The visitor was a tall, stout and spectacled man who talks a lot while Mr Nath is quiet person. The children were thrilled and they were discussing the possibilities of Mr Nath being a crook.

Maya's Facts

Their school opened after the summer holiday the next day but they could not attend it because of heavy rains. Nishad was busy reading his comics when Maya informed what she had done. She had made a note of everything they knew about Mr Nath calling them 'facts' and gave a number to each one of them. Nishad disagreed with Maya for calling Mr Nath a criminal.

He felt bad for him for having no friends while Maya thought that the visitor who comes to his place on Sunday may be his partner who knows all his secrets and may be the loot as well. Both the children had an argument and Nishad was upset with Maya for calling Mr Nath a crook. Nishad was interested only in finding out why Mr Nath was so thin and a loner. He wanted to be his friend and Maya's theories didn't have any impact on Seven.

NCERT FOLDER

COMPREHENSION CHECK

1. What did Nishad give Mr Nath? Why?

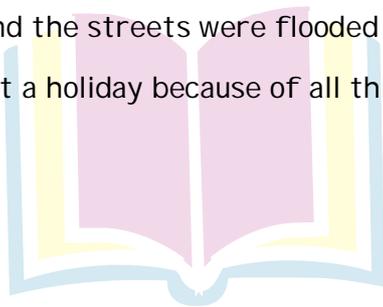

Nishad gave Mr Nath a bar of chocolate because he concluded from Mr Nath's lean thin appearance that he was starving.

2. What is 'strange' about Mr Nath's Sundays?

Every Sunday Mr Nath used to have the same visitor at this home and the two used to have lunch together.

3. Why did Nishad and Maya get a holiday?

It was raining heavily and the streets were flooded with the downpour. The traffic was blocked and children got a holiday because of all this.

Next Generation School

WORKING WITH LANGUAGE

1. The word 'tip' has only three letters but many meanings.

Match the word with its meaning below.

- (i) Finger tips-be about to say something
- (ii) The tip of your nose-make the boat overturn
- (iii) Tip the water out of the bucket-the ends of one's fingers
- (iv) Have something on the tip of your tongue-give a rupee to him, to thank him
- (v) Tip the boat over-empty a bucket by tilting it
- (vi) Tip him a rupee-the pointed end of your nose
- (vii) The tip of the bat-if you take this advice
- (viii) The police were tipped off-the bat lightly touched the ball
- (ix) If you take my tip-the end of the bat
- (x) The bat tipped the ball-the police were told or warned
- (i) Finger tips-the ends of one's fingers
- (ii) The tip of your nose-the pointed end of your nose
- (iii) Tip the water out of the bucket-empty a bucket by tilting it
- (iv) Have something on the tip of your tongue-be about to say something
- (v) Tip the boat over-make the boat overturn
- (vi) Tip him a rupee-give a rupee to him to thank him
- (vii) The tip of the bat-the end of the bat
- (viii) The police were tipped off-the police were told or warned
- (ix) If you take my tip-if you take my advice
- (x) The bat tipped the ball-the bat lightly touched the ball.

2. The words helper, companion, partner and accomplice have very similar meaning, but each word is typically used in certain phrases. Can you fill in the blanks below with the most commonly used words? A dictionary may help you.

- (i) Business.....
- (ii) My.....on the journey.
- (iii) I'm mother's little.....
- (iv) A faithful..... such as dog.
- (v) The thief's.....
- (vi) Find a good.....
- (vii) Tennis/golf/bridge.....
- (viii) His.....in his criminal activities.

- | | |
|----------------|-------------------|
| (i) partner | (ii) companion |
| (iii) helper | (iv) companion |
| (v) accomplice | (vi) helper |
| (vii) partner | (viii) accomplice |

3. Now let us look at the uses of the word break. Match the word with its meanings below. Try to find out at least three other ways in which to use the word.

- (i) The storm broke-could not speak; was too sad to speak
 - (ii) Daybreak-this kind of weather ended
 - (iii) His voice is beginning to break-it began or burst into activity
 - (iv) Her voice broke and she cried-the beginning of daylight
 - (v) The heat wave broke-changing as the grows up
 - (vi) Broke the bad news-end it by making the workers submit
 - (vii) Break a strike-gently told someone the bad news
 - (viii) (find your own expression. Give its meaning here)
-
- (i) The storm broke-this kind of weather ended
 - (ii) Daybreak-the beginning of daylight
 - (iii) His voice is beginning to break-changing as he grows up
 - (iv) Her voice broke and she cried-could not speak, was too sad to speak
 - (v) The heat wave broke-it began or burst into activity
 - (vi) Broke the bad news-gently told someone the bad news
 - (vii) Break a strike-end it by making the workers submit
 - (viii) Breakdown-a machine failure

SPEAKING

1. Play detectives with each other. Find a person in your class (or some other acquaintance) to speak to. Find out the answers to the questions given below. Be careful to ask your questions in a polite and inoffensive way. Do not force the person to answer you. Then allow the person ask you the same question.

- (i) Name?
 - (ii) What newspaper or magazine does the person read?
 - (iii) How long has the person lived at the current address?
 - (iv) What does she/he do during the day, i.e. the daily routine?
 - (v) What do neighbours and friends say about the person?
 - (vi) Who are his/her visitors and what are his/her eating habits? (You can ask a few other questions about this)
 - (vii) What do you think about the person?
- Please try it yourself.

WRITING

1. Who do you think Mr Nath is? Write a paragraph or two about him.

Mr Nath is a lean and thin person. He might have met with some serious accident with fire which has resulted in many scars on his face. People are scared about him for those scars which give his face an ugly impression.

He realises the same and that is why he prefers living alone and avoids going out. He talks less, but is a well-mannered person and is polite towards everyone.

He is regularly consulting Maya and Nishad's mother, who is a doctor. Maybe he is not keeping well and that could be the reason behind his gaunt appearance.

He has a brother who visits him every Sunday to find out about his health. Mr Nishad is not much interested about nitty-gritty's of life and prefer eating same simple food daily.

Next Generation School

2. What else do you think Nishad and Maya will find out about him? How? Will they ever be friends? Think about these questions and write a paragraph or two to continue the story.

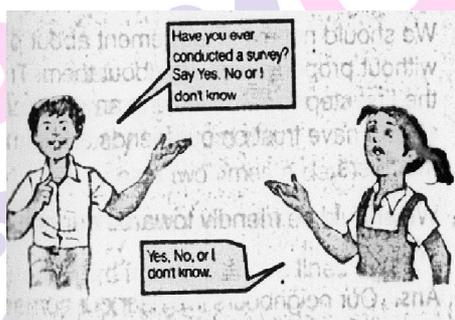

Nishad and Maya would have found out that the Sunday visitor is Mr Nath's brother. Mr Nath used to work for a big private company and has left the job for while because he was not keeping well.

He is suffering from some liver ailment and will be undergoing a surgery soon. Nishad succeeds in befriending him and goes to his house every evening to play with him. He finds Mr Nath a caring and loving person.

He becomes a frequent visitor to his place. Maya regrets about her earlier thoughts about Mr Nath.

She feels sorry about it. Nishad takes her along one day and the they all become friends.

3. Conducting a Survey

Step I Study the following questionnaire and discuss the points in small groups.

A home is a place where	Yes	No	Don't know
You feel secure and happy
You can be alone
You can keep all your things.
You can bring up a family.
You can invite friends/relatives.
You can make a noise if you want to.
You can do whatever you like.
You are at peace.
You can look after your parents.
You receive and give love.

Step II Collect information. Contact people in the school/your locality and put these questions to them. Tick Mark (✓) their answers in the relevant column.

Step III Analyse the results in the group by asking.

- How many people think that home is place where you feel secure and happy?
- How many people think that a home isn't a place where you feel secure and happy?
- How many don't know about it?

Step IV Present a brief oral report on the result of your survey. Use phrases such as following

- ★ Most people think that.....
- ★ Few people think that.....
- ★ Hardly anyone thinks that.....
- ★ No one thinks that.....

Try it yourself.

CHAPTER PRACTICE

VERY SHORT ANSWER TYPE

1. Why Maya called Nishad Seven?

Nishad's name meant the seventh note on the musical scale, so Maya called him seven.

2. Name the narrator in the lesson 'Expert Detectives.'

Maya is the narrator in the lesson 'Expert Detectives.'

3. According to Maya what was the cause behind Mr Nath's scars?

According to Maya, Mr Nath would have got his scars in a shoot-out with the police.

4. What did Mr Nath thought Nishad had come to his place the second time for?

Mr Nath thought Nishad had again come to his place in search of his marbles.

5. How was Nishad spending his unexpected holiday?

Nishad was lying on his bed and reading a comic book on his unexpected holiday.

6. What was the condition on which Nishad said he will cooperate with Maya?

Nishad said he will cooperate with Maya only if she will stop calling Mr Nath an escaped crook.

SHORT ANSWER TYPE QUESTIONS

1. What made Nishad turn sympathetic towards Mr Nath?

Nishad turned sympathetic towards Mr Nath seeing his gaunt appearance. His attitude changed further when he came to know that he used to give regular tips to Ramesh for bringing his food. Then he also remembered his mother's words that Mr Nath was a polite man.

2. Give a brief description about Mr Nath's visitor.

Mr Nath used to have a visitor on every Sunday. He was a spectacled tall, fair and stout man. Ramesh found him talking a lot. He used to give company to Mr Nath for lunch during his visits.

3. What was Maya doing on her unexpected holiday?

On her unexpected holiday, Maya assigned herself the task of solving the mystery of Mr Nath. She was busy noting down all the available facts about Mr Nath. She then shared with his brothers and asked for his opinion.

4. What did Maya think about Mr Nath's visitor?

Maya thought that Mr Nath's visitor was his accomplice in his crimes. She believed that he kept all the loot with him and used to come now and then to give his partner his share so that he could manage his expenses.

LONG ANSWER TYPE QUESTIONS

1. Describe Nishad as a child.

Nishad as a child was kind and considerate. He kept in mind all the good things his mother and Ramesh told him about Mr Nath and formed his opinion based on them. He was upset with Mr Nath being so lean and thin. He thought that the man might be starving so he went to his place and gave him a bar of chocolate.

He refused calling him a crook even after being insisted several times by his sister and decided to befriend him because he liked him.

2. What all facts Maya collected about Mr Nath?

Ans: Maya collected the following facts

His name was Mr Nath and they must find out his first name. Other tenants at Shankar House called him mad, strange and unfriendly.

He didn't speak with anyone and lacked manners. He never received any letters and has been living as tenant in Room No 10 in Shankar House. He didn't use to work anywhere and was at his room the whole day. All the kids and some of the grown up people in Shankar House were scared of him.

He had no visitors except the same man on every Sunday. Ramesh used to get his food from the restaurant downstairs and Mr Nath was not much bothered about it. He used to pay him immediately and also used to give tips.

VALUED BASED QUESTIONS

1. Nishad decides to trust Mr Nath. Do you think we should trust others, why so?

We should trust others. We should not doubt people around us unless there is a strong reason for it. People might be behaving in a way which might appear strange to us, but they might be trying to hide their pains and grief though that.

We should not make judgement about them people without properly knowing about them. Trust is the first step towards making any relation. We should have trust on our friends and family members.

2. We should be friends towards our neighbours. Why so?

Our neighbours live near our homes. We meet them daily. They come to our help during bad times and in good times. We share our joys with them. We become friends with our neighbours who are of our age. We play with them and share our things with them. We should be friend with them and cooperative towards them.

It is the responsibility of every human being to be good towards society. We should be good towards our neighbours and must help them in time of their needs.

EXTRACT BASED QUESTIONS

EXTRACT -1

Directions (Q.Nos. 1-6) read the extract given below and answer the following questions.

"He can't be poor if he's crook on the run," I told him. "He's probably got millions of rupees stashed away somewhere in that room." "Do you really think he's criminal, Maya? He doesn't look like one," Nishad looked doubtfully.

"of course he's one, Seven," I said "and he certainly isn't starving. Mr Mehta told us that Ramesh brings his meal up from the restaurant downstairs".

1. Name the speaker in the above lines.

Maya is the speaker in the above lines.

2. Who is being referred as 'crook' in the above lines?

Mr Nath has been referred as a crook in the above lines.

3. Where the speaker believed the person has got so much money from?

Maya thought that Mr Nath would have earned a lot of money from his illegal activities.

4. Who has been referred as 'Seven' in the above lines?

- (a) Maya (b) Nishad (c) Mr Nath (d) Ramesh
(b) Nishad

5. Why does the speaker think that the man is starving?

- (a) He doesn't have money
(b) He doesn't go out of his house
(c) He is very lean and thin
(d) He only eats two times a day

(c) He is very lean and thin.

6. Find a word from the above lines that is synonym of 'hide'.

- (a) Stash (b) On Run (c) Starving (d) Secret

(a) Stash

Directions (Q. Nos. 1-6) Read the extract given below and answer the following questions.

When they returned, Nishad told me he'd been to see Mr Nath and I felt most annoyed that I hadn't been there. Seven had been quite upset about Mr Nath's gaunt appearance and was sure that he was starving.

He told me that he knocked loudly on Mr Nath's door that evening and said, "Open the door quickly, Mr Nath."

1. Who has been referred as 'they' in the above lines?

Nishad and his mother have been referred as 'they' in the above lines.

2. Where 'they' have been?

They have been to Nishad's mother's clinic.

3. Why Maya didn't go there?

Maya was spending her evening with a school friend so, she didn't go there.

4. Why Nishad went to Mr Nath's place for?

- (a) To look for his marbles.
- (b) To look in the trunk in his room.
- (c) To give him a bar of chocolate.
- (d) To befriend with him.

(c) To give him a bar of chocolate.

5. Find one word from the above lines which is antonym of 'fat'

- (a) Starved
- (b) Haggard
- (c) Gaunt
- (d) Lean

Both 'c' and 'd'

6. What was Nishad's reactions after returning from Mr Nath's place?

- (a) He was pleased for being there
- (b) He didn't give any reaction
- (c) He was disappointed for not being invited in
- (d) He was thrilled for being able to look into the trunk

(c) He was disappointed for not being invited in.